

New Therapist presents

No kidding:

*Essential ethical issues
associated with the provision of child psychological services*

A workshop with Clive Willows

About the workshop

Anyone providing psychological services directly or indirectly to children must run the gauntlet of legal and ethical considerations as to what constitutes acceptable practice. This workshop will focus on sections of various Acts (including The Children's Act, Child Justice Act and Sexual Offences Act) with a view to helping psychologists navigate their way through these often complicated guidelines and statutes whilst remaining continually mindful of the ethics of psychological practice.

When:

Saturday, May 5, 2012

Time:

08:30 to 13:00

Where:

Akeso Psychiatric Clinic (see attached map)
